

SMART. PACKAGING. FAST. GUARANTEED!

Confidently trim inventory, free up warehouse space and finally quit babysitting unreliable vendors

Protective packaging shipped on-time. Guaranteed!

Customers tell us the packaging industry rarely fulfills commitments and that promises rarely turn out to be true guarantees.

This is unprofessional since it forces you to hound or babysit suppliers to simply get what was promised.

- > It forces you to order more than you immediately need and to hold excess inventory as insurance.
- > It causes pain and embarrassment when you can't ship on time to YOUR customer.
- > It leads to frustration and extra cost when shipments arrived damaged due to inferior packaging.

A real shipping guarantee, backed by a late penalty

We want to change this. That's why we're making the following bold guarantee:

- > We will ship your packaging on the guaranteed date.
- > Otherwise we will pay you a penalty for every day we are late.

Speed to market is critical.
Delays can cost dearly.

If packaging orders were on time, every time, you could reduce costs.

On-time packaging means less downtime, less over-processing, leaner inventory, motion, and much less expediting! And you can redeploy resources and simply focus getting more value to drive growth and profits.
